Celebrating their special day

Krysten Quetchenbach, 6, hospitalized for severe asthma, gets a makeover from Miss St. Petersburg Tatiana Schoeppler during a party at St. Joseph's Children's Hospital on Friday. The "Queen for a Day" celebration included a tea party and tiaras donated by pageant winners. Local firefighters visited boys and gave them a chance to try on firefighter gear. "Queen for a Day" is a national, nonprofit organization developed to improve self-esteem in children battling cancer.
